NO. 9 PINOT GRIS

For all wine drinkers who don't immediately think of Pinot Grigio when hearing Grauburgunder. On the nose, initially freshly dried herbs, followed by a hint of mint. Subtle honey and vanilla reveal the well-integrated oak. A delicate reminder of pear. Dry and powerful, yet full-bodied, soft, and smooth on the palate. A wine with strength and structure, and at the same time a versatile food companion.
