RIESLING

This dry Riesling appears straw-yellow in the glass and has a higher viscosity. The wine exudes an intense and complex bouquet with aromas of ripe pineapple, vineyard peach, wild roses, meadow flowers, candied ginger, lemon balm, and flint. The wine is dry, with an almost salty minerality, fresh acidity, and a citrusy hint of bitterness on the finish that lend it additional structure and backbone. A Riesling with a strong character, featuring a complex and well-defined interplay of aromas, a long finish, and aging potential.
